

• Hi! I'm Dropper, and I'm water vapor! We at least I am now. I had a great big journey to get here, you'd love to hear about it. I'm sure

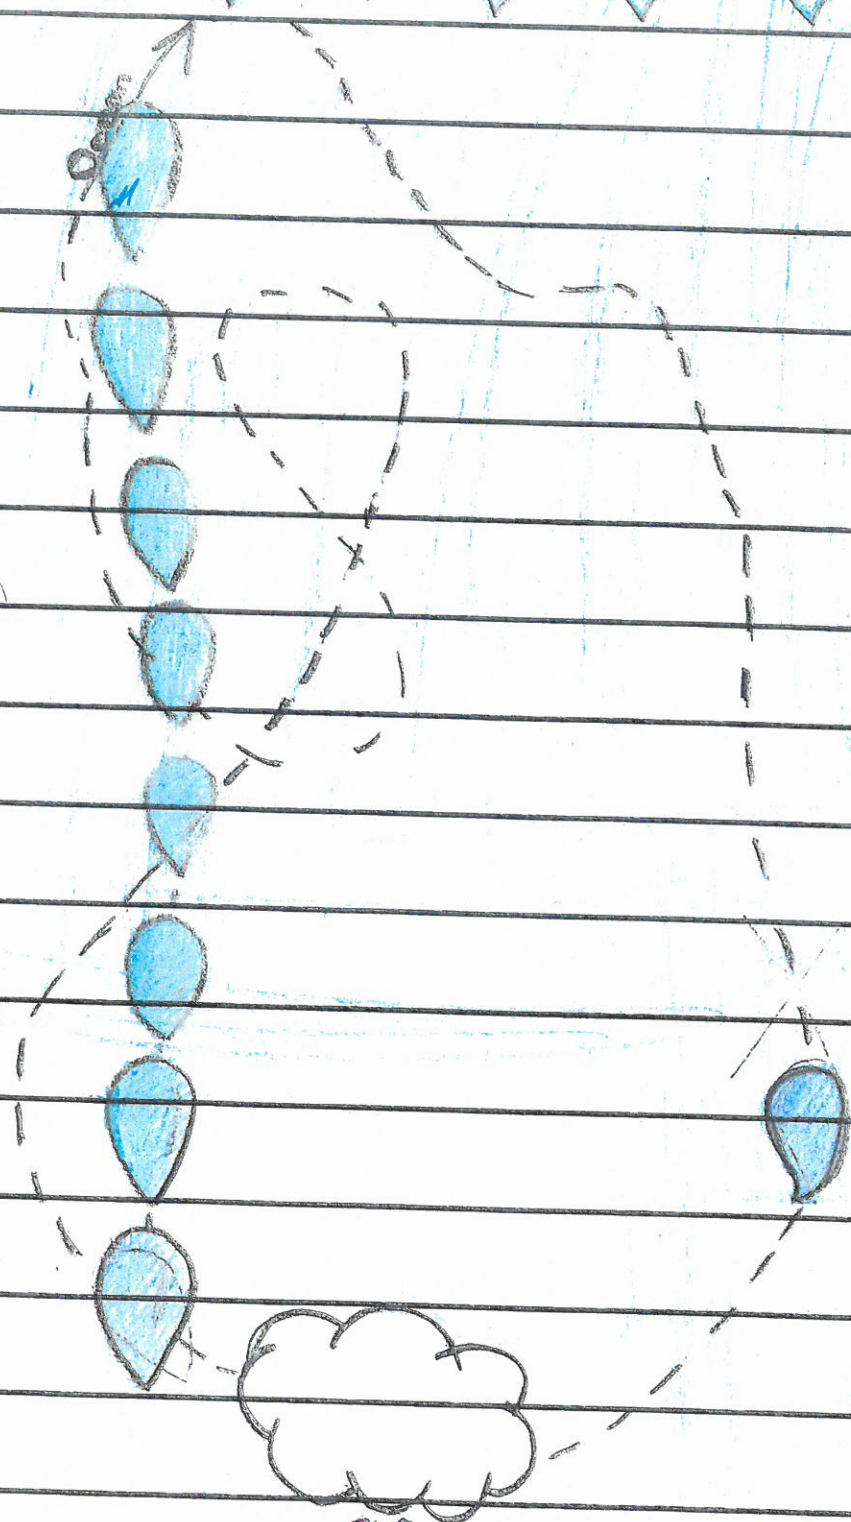

• Two weeks ago, I was a glacier along with a lot of other droplets. I met Lola, Willie, and Narwhal. We stayed together, by joining our drops. When the sun came up, our glacier melted and long after that we evaporated into a great big cloud. Inside the cloud, we traveled across the world, collecting drops. When we were full, BOOM! Everyone crashed to the floor.

• As I looked around, I realized I was in a plant, a vegetable. Broccoli! I hate broccoli! The good thing was that shortly after, I was eaten by a human! That night I was digested and, um, you know what's next.

• Everyone swirled and swirled around until we finally went into the pipes! <sup>of the house</sup> My parent had told me about this before, I was being flushed down the toilet! Eventually, us droplets made our way to the sewer pipes. Let me tell ya, there were lots of mean germs I met down there. Other droplets went down different pipes, and more droplets came! <sup>up</sup> It was great! But, all great things have to come to an end. And so I got cleaned out by The NBC, and after days of streams and pipes, I was used to water plants.

 My home was now a blade of grass. Two days tops, and nature decided I was ready to move... again. This time a deer ate me. In about five minutes, <sup>I was</sup> exhaled as water-vapor. I was sent into the clouds to (hopefully) stay here!
